ORIGIN OF THE NAME GUYER

1. M. A. Lower, an authority on names, says Guyer is taken from the Old English Guyour, a guider or leader.

2. Harrison's Surnames of the United Kingdom gives name of Guyer a French derivation from Old Teutonic Wigher, (l) Meaning War Hero or War Army.

3. The name or word Guyer is found on early Saxon Coins as name of a moneyer who may have been a banker. Boge's Origin of Names.

The reference of Guyer in 1850 Census was as follows:

Newark, N.J.—Henry Guyer #470 born in Switzerland, age 43 years, born 1807. A cabinetmaker.

CREST – GUYER FAMILY

Heraldic Description

Arms: Chequy or and azure, over all a chervon ermine.

Herald: An officer who proclaimed war or peace. Bore messages between Ruler or Commander, made solemn announcements.

Chequy: To check, Or and; to read or speak.

Azure: The Clear Blue Sky.

Crest: Jessant-de-lis: Emerging or shooting: De Freeing from Lisor, City in France.

Arms: The civilization of England before the Conquest has left us no trace of any sort or kind that the Saxons, the Danes, or the Celts either knew or practiced armory.

Herald: The word Herald is derived from the Anglo-Saxon, here, an army, and wald, strength or sway — though it has probably come to us from the German word Herald.

Chequy: As above.

Azure: As above.

Crest: Seal of Elizabeth, widow of Phillip, Duke of Orleans, brother of King Louis XIV of France. She was the daughter of Elector Charles Louis.

Dear Mr. Guyer:

I have received your letter of June 15 relative to Nicholas Guyer.

The Koger Index which you saw listed in Wallace R. Draughn's book lists a Jacob and John Guyer, but no Nicholas Guyer.

I have examined other immigration lists and other collective materials in our Genealogical Collection; and although I found references to other persons by the name of Guyer, there is no mention of a Nicholas.

The 1790 census of both North Carolina and Pennsylvania lists quite a number of families by this name, so it is apparent that members of this family settled in both states at an early period.

Rupp's 30,000 IMMIGRANTS states that a Joseph Guyer sailed to America in the ship, "Phoenix," which came from Rotterdam, Holland, but this does not indicate that this Joseph Guyer was from Holland. It only indicates that Rotterdam was the port of embarkation.

I am very sorry that I have not been able to give you the information which you requested.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Margaret B. Price

Dear Mr. Guyer:

As requested in your letter of June 26, I have checked the 1790 census of North Carolina and Pennsylvania. The following is the listing of those by the name of Guyer which are in these census reports:

1790 CENSUS OF NORTH CAROLINA

John Guyer, Perquimans County
Joseph Guyer, Pasquotank County
Meriam Guyer, Perquimans County

1790 CENSUS OF PENNSYLVANIA

John Guyer, Lancaster County
John Guyer, Montgomery County
John Guyer, Philadelphia County
Leonard Guyer, Bucks County
Mary Guyer, Philadelphia County

You understand that the above names are those who are heads of households. Each of them had families, but the names of an entire family were not listed until the 1850 census.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Margaret B. Price

The doctor's little daughter opened the door to the caller. "'Is the doctor at home?" he asked. "No sir," replied the child, "he is out performing an appendectomy." The caller smiled and said, "That's a very big word for a little girl like you. Do you know what it means?" The little one nodded, "Oh, yes . . . it means $125.00."

MA'S VACATION

In the summer Pa rents a house-keeping cottage at Lake Mosquito to give Ma her annual respite from the automatic washer, vacuum cleaner and TV set.

Up at the lake Ma rises at six so she can get a big breakfast for Pa and her three hungry boys. After eating, she hurries to wash the dishes in time to do some laundry in the sink before she makes the beds and sweeps the place with a good old-fashioned broom. Then she prepares lunch, after which she does the dishes and some more laundry in the sink. After three o'clock, before she starts dinner, she plops in a chair in front of the cottage and fans herself. From a rowboat out on the lake Pa sees her, waves and says to one of his sons, "It sure does me good to see your mother sitting there enjoying herself."
